SUPERINTENDENT'S REPORT
FOR THE YEAR 2010
By: Bishop Jim Whitfield

Greetings: Mr. Chairman and Conference delegates.

This conference year has been a year of continued shift for the North Carolina Conference. In the past two years, we have worked with seventy-two (72) pastoral changes. That represents 29% of our churches shifting to new pastoral leadership. Forty-five (45) percent of the churches, that have had a pastoral change, are reporting measurable growth and turn around. However, we have more churches growing who have not changed pastors than those who have had a pastoral change. It is obvious that the key to growing the Kingdom of God through Pentecostal Holiness churches has much to do with the heart of pastoral and lay leadership.

Our challenge as Conference leaders is to equip and motivate our ministers and lay ministers (for we all are ministers of Jesus Christ) to reach the ripened harvest that exists here in eastern North Carolina as well as around the world. We are grateful to God for the new life that is flowing into the Conference ministries. This year, we had 14 new churches added to our family of churches; nine ministers will be ordained to ministry; 10 new candidates will be licensed, 10 new ministers have transferred into the conference and 25 local church ministry certificates were granted to local church ministers. That is a total of 55 people who have entered into a new status of ministry this year.

Leaders of six of our ten largest churches are meeting regularly with Dr. Conrad Lowe, a church growth specialist, as he coaches them to the next level of reaching people for Christ. This year, in the fall of 2011, we will implement a program developed by Dr. Owen Weston to double attendance in two years. Bro. Luis Avila has committed the Hispanic church leaders of our conference to plant forty (40) Hispanic churches in the next three years. Bishop Larry Wright is strategizing with Rev. Stacy Hilliard and EVUSA to double the number of African American churches in the next three years.

Our prayer goal is to have at least 5,000 people a year saved (4,973 reported in 2010) through the outreach ministries of N. C. Conference ministers and churches. We believe God for a net of 1,000 new members per year. Our preaching focus will be to lead our people into the deeper experience of sanctification and the baptism of the Holy Spirit with healings accompanying the work of the Holy Spirit in the ministries of our churches across the conference. We believe Jesus is soon coming and we want to be about getting people ready. May God grant it to be so.

Finances are turning around from the 2009-2010 economic challenges and the adjustments of the General tithe. Our minister's tithes through June are the best since 2008 and church tithe is above the 2010 figure. Our tithe to the General Church is the best since 2008.

The focus of our vision for the next three years is four-fold in nature.

1. Continue a strong multicultural and multiracial outreach to people of all races and cultures.
2. Birth new churches and grow them strong for God.
3. Revitalize plateaued and declining churches with comebacks and turn arounds.

4. Embrace churches of like-minded faith and vision who are without a movement covering.

I want to publicly thank God for the Leadership Team of this conference. The Holy Spirit has put together a team of visionary leaders second to none in the IPHC. God bless you:
Danny Nelson, Assistant Superintendent, Evangelism and World Missions Director
Oris Hubbard, Secretary/Treasurer, Loan Officer
Luis Avila, Director of Hispanic Ministries
Jon Oliver, Director of Discipleship Ministries

II. PARTICIPATION

A. Retirement: A minister, having become disabled to do the work of a minister (AND has been approved for disability by the Social Security Administration) or reached full retirement age, shall be eligible at his request for retirement benefits. He may elect to retire at age sixty-two (62) with 80% of accrued benefits; at age sixty-three (63) with 87% of accrued benefits; or at age sixty-four (64) with 94% of accrued benefits. The rate of benefits shall be determined by:

1. His number of service years as a member of the North Carolina Conference.
2. His support of the conference financial program.
    a. In the event a minister retires because of mental or physical disability before he reaches full retirement age AND has been approved for disability by the Social Security Administration, the minister will receive full benefits for the duration of his disability. The rate of his retirement benefits shall be based on his service years in the conference and the support of its financial program.

The Retirement Constitution requires that recommended changes be presented in one session and considered after recess. This recommendation will be considered following a recess later.

The Chair recognized Rev. Paul Evans to begin consideration of the Discipleship Ministries Report. Motion was made and seconded to approve the Discipleship Ministries Report. Motion Passed with no amendments offered. The report was approved as printed.

The Chair presented Mr. Joey Leggett to share news of the ministry of Falcon Children's Home after which Mr. Leggett introduced Rev. Marvin Whitfield, director of ATAM, Inc. Rev. Whitfield updated the Conference on this ministry

The top three remaining vote getters were Paul Brafford, Ryan Jackson and Marvin Smith. Delegates were directed to vote for one nominee.

The Chair recognized Bishop Whitfield to present the By-Laws Committee report.

Bishop Whitfield asked for Oris Hubbard to present a proposed change on page 72 under By-Laws: Finances - Minister and Church. The committee is striking the entirety of paragraphs #2 and #3, replacing them with the following paragraph.

> Each local church shall support the IPHC and N.C. Conference budgets by submitting a tithe (10%) of its income from regular tithes and offerings (all undesignated income) to the Conference Ministry Center on a monthly basis. The Conference Treasurer will forward to the IPHC Global Ministry Center the portion of all receipts mandated by the General Conference. In the case of a local church's failure to comply with this covenant agreement, the Conference Bishop may ask for an explanation for the delay. Churches who keep this financial covenant with the IPHC and N.C. Conference are encouraged to earmark special offerings. All funds raised for World Missions Ministries, Evangelism, Falcon Children's Home, Education and other designated ministries are to be sent to the Conference Ministry Center on a monthly basis and forwarded accordingly.

Bishop Whitfield moved the adoption of the By-Laws Report.

Rev. Marty Warren made a motion that on page 75, line 13, the words "and/or" be changed to only "and". The committee accepted this wording without opposition.

The By-Laws Committee report was approved by voice vote.

Results of the latest Examining Committee ballot were returned with the following tally: Paul Brafford (73), Ryan Jackson (48), Marvin Smith 33. With a voting strength of 154 based on votes cast, 78 votes were needed to be elected. There was no election. The name of Marvin Smith was dropped.

The final vote for Examining Committee had the following tally: Paul Brafford (92) and Ryan Jackson (55). Paul Brafford was elected.

Bishop Whitfield offered a motion of appreciation to Presiding Bishop Ronald Carpenter, Sr. for an excellent job as presiding officer of this Quadrennial Conference. The motion passed with a standing round of applause for the Presiding Bishop.

The Chair held an installation service for the newly elected North Carolina Conference Executive Council.

The Chair declared the 100th Conference of the North Carolina Conference of the Pentecostal Holiness Church to be adjourned.

NORTH CAROLINA CONFERENCE OF THE PENTECOSTAL HOLINESS CHURCH

2010 DECORUM COMMITTEE REPORT

"Let all things be done decently and in order."* I Corinthians 14:40

I. INTRODUCTION AND PURPOSE

We, your committee on Decorum, recommend these rules of procedure to be observed for the transaction of business in the 2010 Quadrennial Session of the North Carolina Conference.

II. RULES OF ORDER

A. Procedures not specified in this report shall be governed by ROBERTS RULES OF ORDER, Newly Revised.
B. A timekeeper and parliamentarian shall be appointed by the Chairman.
C. A chief teller and an adequate staff of tellers shall be appointed by the Conference Council for official counting of all balloting.
D. All speakers must be courteous in language and deportment.

III. BAR AND HOURS OF BUSINESS

A. The bar of the conference shall include the stage and four (4) center sections of the auditorium.
B. The hours of business shall be determined by the acceptance of a printed agenda, with the exception of such changes as may be made by the presiding officer in consultation with the Conference Bishop and Conference Executive Council.
C. Adjournment will not take place on the opening day of the conference until the election of the Conference Bishop has been completed.

IV. REPORTING PROCEDURES

A. Committee reports shall be mailed to all ministers and delegates at least three weeks prior to the quadrennial conference. Copies of reports will also be available at the first session of the conference.
B. Oral reports will be given by the Conference Bishop and the Conference Treasurer. It is recommended that their reports be limited to synoptic versions rather than reading their entire printed reports.
C. The only other oral reports will be made by members of the Conference Executive Council, Director of Discipleship Ministries, Director of Evangelism & World Missions, Supervisor of Hispanic Ministries, Conference Women's Ministries Director and Conference Men's Ministries Director. These reports shall be limited to three minutes.

V. RESOLUTIONS

Resolutions designed to be introduced from the floor of the Conference that are not included in the Report of the Committee on Resolutions shall be signed by a number of Conference members equal to the number of persons on the Resolutions Committee. Such resolutions shall be displayed on the multimedia screens.

VI. OBTAINING THE FLOOR

A. An adequate number of microphones (six suggested) shall be numbered and placed on the floor of the conference in addition to the stage microphones.
B. Any member desiring to speak shall move to the nearest microphone to seek and obtain recognition from the Chair by giving the number of the microphone from which he or she is speaking. Once recognized by the chair, the speaker shall state his or her name.

VII. DEBATE

A. Members must limit their remarks to the question that is before the Conference. When a question is under debate, the Chair shall endeavor to give equal opportunity to both those who wish to speak in the affirmative and those who wish to speak in opposition.

B. All speakers in debate shall be limited to three minutes for any one speech and no one shall be permitted to speak more than twice when there are others desiring to speak on the same question.

C. The Chair shall not entertain a motion for the previous question until a minimum of four speakers have been heard from either side of the question providing there are those who desire to speak on the question.

D. In the event of extended, repetitious debate, if the chair determines that all pertinent information has been presented, the Chair in consultation with the Parliamentarian may present the question or subject under discussion to the body for a vote. This may be challenged and reversed by a majority vote of this body.

VIII. NOMINATIONS AND ELECTIONS

A. NOMINATIONS:

1. Nominations shall be made from the floor for all positions except those assigned to a designated nominating committee.
2. No motion to close nominations shall be entertained.
3. Any office holder who is at the conclusion of a second term or subsequent term(s) in his or her current office may be considered for nomination in keeping with the following General Conference ruling: "... an exception shall be that the Conference in Conference session may consider for nomination any conference executive council member who is at the conclusion of his second of subsequent term in the same office. A separate motion requiring a two-thirds majority ballot vote to pass may be offered to allow each such member to be nominated along with other for that same office. The elections will be by majority vote." (IPHC Manual 2009-2013, page 122)
4. Prior to the vote, the chairman shall request all nominees to stand for the purpose of identification.
5. The names of all nominees and all voting results shall be displayed on the multimedia screens.

B. ELECTIONS

1. All elections shall be determined by a majority vote.
2. All voting shall be by ballot unless there is only one nominee.
3. When electing a person for a single office:
   a. If there is no election on the first ballot, the four (4) nominees with the highest number of votes shall be run on the second ballot.
   b. If there is no election on the second ballot, the nominee with the lowest number of votes shall be dropped on the third and each succeeding ballot.
   c. In the event there is a tie vote, the conference shall continue balloting until there is an election.
4. When electing Conference Executive Council members:
   a. Voting shall be done on separate ballots, simultaneously.
   b. If there is no election on the first ballot, the nine (9) nominees receiving the highest number of votes shall be run on the second ballot.
   c. If one nominee is elected on the first ballot, only six (6) nominees shall be run on the second ballot.
   d. The nominee with the lowest number of votes shall be dropped on each succeeding ballot until the number of members needed is elected.
5. In the interest of the Kingdom of God and recognizing the multiplicity of the talents given to the Body of Christ, no individuals except departmental directors shall be elected to serve simultaneously on more than one Conference Board.

Respectfully Submitted:

The job description and compensation package shall be set by the Conference Executive Council. At the request of the Conference Bishop the supervisor will sit in with the Conference Executive Council with seat and voice. (Clarification: this does not prohibit the supervisor from being appointed from the membership of the Conference Executive Council.)

II. HISPANIC LEADERSHIP BOARD

A. The conference will create a Hispanic Leadership Council consisting of no less than six members to serve with the Hispanic Supervisor. The Conference Bishop and Conference Executive Council will develop job descriptions for members of the Hispanic Leadership Council.

B. This board will be nominated by the Conference Executive Council and elected by the Hispanic convention according to the pattern of election of the North Carolina Conference examining Committee. Delegates to the Hispanic Convention shall be elected according to the same criteria of the Quadrennial Conference.

C. This board will work with the Hispanic Supervisor to examine and recommend ministerial candidates to the Conference Executive Council, assist in Hispanic training events, assist the supervisor in oversight of Hispanic ministry, and in various other tasks assigned by the Conference Bishop/Hispanic Supervisor.

D. This board shall be directly amenable to the Conference Bishop.

E. In the area of Hispanic church planting, the Hispanic Supervisor and Hispanic Leadership Council will continue to work with the Conference Director of Evangelism in locating areas and prospects for new Hispanic churches.

III. OTHER DEPARTMENTS WITHIN THE CONFERENCE

A. DISCIPLESHIP MINISTRIES

1. The Discipleship Ministries Council (consisting of the Assistant Director, Secretary/Treasurer, and two Council Members) shall be elected by the Conference in session.
2. Up to seven additional Council Members may be appointed as needed. Both their appointment and term of office shall be made by the Director in conjunction with the Discipleship Ministries Executive Council, and will be subject to approval by the Conference Executive Council.
3. All members of the Discipleship Ministries Council shall have seat, voice, and vote on the Discipleship Ministries Council.

B. WOMEN'S MINISTRIES

Each local pastor is encouraged to appoint an *i*WIN Captain for his/her church.

G. MEN'S MINISTRIES DEPARTMENT. The Conference Executive Council will appoint a Men's Ministries Director and Board according to the guidelines as specified by the Men's Ministries Constitution. Men's Ministries will be given space in the conference Evangel and be included in the Conference Budget. Each local church is encouraged to organize a Men's Ministries Group and cooperate with the Conference and General Men's Ministries programs and projects.

IV. MINISTERS AND CHURCHES

A. Pastoral appointments and adjustments shall be made according to the IPHC Manual (page 126-D through page 130)

B. Hispanic candidates for Local church Ministers Certificate/License/Ordination shall be interviewed and recommended to the Conference Executive Council by the Hispanic Leadership Board.

C. To know the progress being made in local ministries throughout our Conference and to objectively analyze spiritual and numerical growth, each church shall mail monthly reports to the Conference Ministry Center (CMC) in time for them to arrive by the 10th of the following month. Annual reports must be mailed by January 10th of each year.

D. It is strongly urged that each local pastor and church support all Conference Departments which are: Discipleship Ministries, Women's Ministries, Men's Ministries, World Intercessors Network (*i*WIN), Minister's Wives Fellowship, Department of Retired Ministers, Archives and Evangelism/Missions Ministries.

E. All delegates to the Quadrennial Conference shall have attended church and given tithe into the local church treasury regularly and faithfully during the previous six months.

F. Churches shall pay the salaries of full time staff when they are involved in Conference/Church activities. Such activities shall not count as vacation time.

G. Actual expenses of the pastor and delegate to the General Conference shall be reimbursed by the local church.

H. Local churches shall observe May as "Retired Ministers Month and participate in contributing to the Retired Minister's Special Assistance Fund; and in December's "Adopt (or Honor) A Retired Minister For Christmas" activity. All retired ministers throughout the conference should be recognized for their life time of dedication to the will of God and the preaching of the gospel and be given an opportunity to minister when possible and appropriate.

I. Pastors should meet at least annually with all ministry directors in their church to develop greater awareness and promotion of their total church program.

J. The Conference Bishop and/or Secretary/Treasurer shall meet with pastors and boards of churches that are not fully supporting the Tithe for the purpose of informing them of the Conference and General Programs. They will assist them in formulating a plan to work toward coming into compliance with these programs.

K. Each local church is urged to support the ministry of Falcon Children's Home through daily prayer and planned cooperation in the Children's home program. A section should be provided in the Conference Evangel when requested by Falcon Children's Home Superintendent to spotlight some phase of the work of the Home. Special emphasis on Harvest Train will continue annually in the Fall issue of the Evangel. Each local pastor and groups from local churches are urged to schedule a visit to the home to become acquainted with its operation. Pastors are urged to appoint local church coordinators to serve as contact persons in planning and promoting the ministries of ATAM, Inc.

V. CONFERENCE

A. The Conference Executive Council shall schedule Conference dates and serve as a Nominating Committee for all committees. Retired ministers shall be considered when recruiting members for each of these committees.
   1. Resolutions, Evangelism/Missions, and Finance shall consist of nine persons, five ministers and four laypersons
   2. All other committees shall consist of seven persons: four ministers and three laypersons.
   3. It is further recommended that at least one member of Departmental Boards be appointed to those corresponding Conference committees to serve as liaisons to communicate that Department's interest.

B. A list of all Conference Committees shall be sent to all church at least thirty days prior to the meeting of the committees.

C. Ministers and delegates shall take their Committee Reports home with them and present them to the Church Board and/or congregation as soon as possible following this conference.

D. An editing Committee comprised of the Conference Bishop, Secretary/Treasurer, and the Chairmen of all 2010 Quadrennial Committees shall review all Committee reports and edit them to provide consistent structure and form.

E. The Conference Executive Council and Department heads shall serve as a Planning Committee for all Promotional and Quadrennial Conferences.

F. Whenever there is continual unrest in a congregation, the Conference Executive Council shall be prepared to study the problem and recommend a Scripture-based solution to help the leadership and membership of that particular church overcome this obstacle to their success and growth. (See IPHC Manual, pages 128-#9 ITEMS a,b)

G. The Conference Executive Council shall thoughtfully and prayerfully continue to study the ministry purpose and goals of our Conference in relation to God's Kingdom and shall continue to develop an overall Campus building plan based upon those ministry objectives. This Campus Building plan shall be presented at the appropriate annual Conference for approval.

H. The Conference Executive Council shall continue to develop effective ministry programs that will strengthen the home and family life of our clergy and laity. They shall also continue to provide opportunities for our clergy and their spouses to have a time of fellowship and recreation together on an annual basis. These programs shall include assistance to clergy in crisis.

I. The Conference Executive Council shall be responsible for scheduling Camp Meeting dates and selection of Camp Meeting speakers.

J. The Conference Executive Council shall continue to provide continuing education opportunities to meet guidelines provided by the Presiding Bishop. Our ministers are to be encouraged to attend the School of Ministry for CEU's and personal enrichment purposes.

VI. OTHER

A. The Conference Bishop's strategic Advisory Council (SAC) comprised of the Directors of all Conference ministries/departments and others appointed by the Conference Bishop with approval of the Conference Executive Council shall meet with the Conference Bishop at least semi-annually. The purpose of these meetings is communication, coordination, and consideration of the on-going ministries within the Conference vision and goals as established by the Conference and Conference Executive Council.

B. Retired ministers and their spouses shall be given meals and rooms without cost to them (when available) during Conference, Camp Meeting, and other Conference activities as determined by the Conference Executive Council.

2010 DISCIPLESHIP MINISTRIES COMMITTEE REPORT

Discipleship Ministries is primarily devoted to spiritual formation (producing and sustaining personal spiritual growth and maturity in the saints) in order to equip the church for her mission to reach the world and for acts of service (Matthew 28:19; Ephesians 4:11-12, 13-16). It is the conviction of the North Carolina Conference that the Discipleship Ministries Department is an integral part of God's plan for preparing saints for service in the Kingdom of God; therefore, Discipleship Ministries is the principal discipleship and teaching arm of the North Carolina Conference, with the goal of making, maturing, training, multiplying and engaging disciples of all ages in evangelism and service, to fulfill Christ's mission for the church (Matthew 28:20).

I. Discipleship Ministries Department Structure

A. Leadership

1. A full-time Discipleship Ministries Director shall be elected by this Conference in session, from its conference membership.
2. The Assistant Discipleship Ministries Director and Secretary/Treasurer shall be elected by this Conference in session to serve as the Executive Discipleship Ministries Council.
3. The Discipleship Ministries Director in consultation with the Executive Discipleship Ministries Council may, with the approval of the Conference Council, appoint up to seven (7) members with portfolios, as needed, to form the Discipleship Ministries Council. The duration of service will be at the discretion of the Discipleship Ministries Director, and subject to the approval of the Conference Executive Council.
   a. All Discipleship Ministries Council Members (elected and appointed) will have seat, voice and vote.
   b. The Discipleship Ministries Council shall serve as a deliberative, legislative and administrative body for Discipleship Ministries in the North Carolina Conference.
   c. The Discipleship Ministries Director shall appoint and seat as members of the Discipleship Ministries Council, the Women's Ministries and Men's Ministries Directors.
   d. The Discipleship Ministries Director in consultation with the Executive Council shall appoint and seat as members of the Discipleship Ministries Council other members with portfolios, up to a maximum of ten (10) members in total.
4. Should the position of Discipleship Ministries Director be vacated before the term has expired, the Assistant Discipleship Ministries Director will be given first consideration to fill the remainder of that term. The Conference Executive Council, in consultation with the Discipleship Ministries Council, shall appoint a Director and Assistant Director (as needed), to fill any vacancy in the Executive Discipleship Ministries Council.
5. The Discipleship Ministries Director's salary and benefits shall be set and reviewed by the Conference Executive Council annually.

B. Responsibilities

1. Responsibilities of the Conference Discipleship Ministries Director.
   a. The Discipleship Ministries Director shall cast vision or and promote Discipleship Ministries on the Conference level. He/She shall make every effort to be available or to make resources available to assist local churches in implementing the state primary goal of Discipleship Ministries.
   b. A job description for the Discipleship Ministries Director shall be adopted by the Discipleship Ministries Council and reviewed and revised as needed.
   c. Pastors and local Discipleship Ministries Directors are encouraged to extend invitations to the Conference Discipleship Ministries Director to visit the local church for the purpose of training and promoting Discipleship Ministries programs and ministries.
   d. The Discipleship Ministries Director may appoint ministry teams made up of representatives from the various zones of the conference to assist in the promotion of Discipleship Ministries programs and ministries.
   e. The Discipleship Ministries Director will plan and promote Discipleship Ministries training events on the Conference and District level to help develop and enhance Discipleship Ministries.
2. Responsibilities of the Discipleship Ministries Council.

a. The Discipleship Ministries Council will assist, advise and support the Discipleship Ministries Director in carrying out his/her vision for the ministries of the Discipleship Ministries Department: "Plans fail for lack of counsel, but with many advisers they succeed." (Proverbs 15:22 NIV).

b. Each elected or appointed Discipleship Ministries Council Member, who does not serve as a director of a ministry with its own subsidiary council and governing constitution will be expected to offer to serve on the staff of Falcon Youth Camp one session each year.

c. Discipleship Ministries Council Members who do not serve as a director of a ministry with its own subsidiary council and governing constitution will make themselves available when possible to assist in Talent Quest and other Discipleship Ministries programs.

d. Discipleship Ministries Council Members are expected to use their talents and expertise in ministry to help develop and offer training opportunities to the Conference through the Discipleship Ministries Department.

C. Structure

1. The conference Discipleship Ministries department will include the following departments under its purview: Adult Ministries, Children's Ministries, Youth Ministries, Men's Ministries, Sunday School/Systematic Bible Study, Royal Rangers, Women's Ministries, Girls' Ministries, Stewardship Ministries, and Worship-Music Ministries.

2. Conference discipleship ministries will provide oversight for a number of ministries and departments, some of which will have their own governing councils and constitutions. The purpose for seating members on the discipleship ministries council with portfolios is to provide a means for connecting these ministries with the vision of the director for discipleship ministries, toward accomplishing the stated primary goal in their respective contexts, with the intended result that spiritual growth will lead to service and evangelism. The discipleship ministries department of the North Carolina conference is fully committed to supporting the goals of discipleship ministries in each ministry under its purview by providing any guidance, support and encouragement necessary to successfully achieve consistent progress in spiritual formation throughout the conference.

D. Specifics

1. The following departments and ministries will benefit from the direct oversight of the Discipleship Ministries Department: Adult Ministries, Children's Ministries, Youth Ministries, Sunday School/Systematic Bible Study, Royal Rangers, and Music Ministries.

2. The following ministries will benefit from a cooperative relationship with the Discipleship Ministries Department, designed to promote and enhance spiritual formation, and to improve communication, planning and the formation and implementation of strategies: Men's Ministries, Women's Ministries, Girls' Ministries, and Stewardship Ministries,

3. Financial and Reporting Considerations

a. Ministries under the purview of the Discipleship Ministries Department which have historically relied upon the Discipleship Ministries Department for processing, oversight, receipt and disbursement of funds (i.e. ministries without their own councils, constitutions and/or bank accounts), will continue to operate under the current arrangements.

b. Ministries under the purview of the Discipleship Ministries Department which have historically operated under the direction of their own councils and constitutions and which have maintained their own bank accounts and records will continue to operate under the current arrangements of their respective departments. Specifically this means that Women's Ministries, Men's Ministries, and Girls' Ministries, for example, will continue to raise, track and disburse funds for projects, benevolence and ministry expenses as they currently do.

c. The portion of any departmental expenses now under the purview of Discipleship Ministries, and that are currently defrayed from the administrative budget of the conference, will be processed through Discipleship ministries.

d. All departments represented on the Discipleship Ministries Council will be expected to report at the quarterly Discipleship Ministries Council meetings, and to provide up to date copies of their financial reports, where applicable.

II. RESOLUTIONS

A. All local church discipleship ministries should pay tithes to their respective conference Discipleship Ministries departments on all undesignated receipts. Explanation: all local church ministries with subsidiary departments now under the purview of the Discipleship Ministries department should continue to pay tithes to their respective department's treasuries on all undesignated receipts. For example – local Women's Ministries will continue to send a tithe to the North Carolina Women's Ministries treasury. Sunday School/Systematic Bible Study will continue to send a tithe to the Discipleship Ministries treasury (in Falcon).

B. All who hold leadership and teaching positions in Discipleship Ministries, both on the Conference and local church level shall be faithful in paying their full tithes into the church or Conference.

C. Youth pastors and all who hold credentials in the North Carolina Conference and those who are involved in youth and children's ministries are encouraged to volunteer one session of service to Falcon Youth Camp each year.

D. Senior pastors with staff are encouraged, wherever feasible, to invite youth and children's ministry staff to volunteer one session to Falcon Youth Camp each year without penalty.

E. The Discipleship Ministries Department is committed to supporting the vital ministry of systematic Bible study for the purpose of maturing the saints and for developing the spiritual, biblical and doctrinal integrity of the local church. Therefore…

1. Pastors and churches of the North Carolina Conference are encouraged to take advantage of the training and resources made available by the Discipleship Ministries Department for the revitalization of the ministries in the local church, which are represented by the Discipleship Ministries Department, including Sunday School and/or Systematic Bible Study, Women's Ministries, Girls' Ministries, Men's Ministries, Stewardship Ministries, Youth and Children Ministries, and Adult Ministries.
2. Pastors and leaders of the local church are encouraged to take a fresh look at local church programs with a view to taking steps to revitalize the ministry focused on promoting spiritual formation in the local church, through either a renewed commitment to an existing program or structure, or through innovative planning and restructuring.

F. In view of the fact that 43% of adults were saved before they reached 13 years of age,[1] the Discipleship Ministries Department is committed to Children's Ministries that is ministry to children before they reach their teens.

1. Pastors, youth pastors and children's ministries leaders are encouraged to take advantage of the resources provided by the Discipleship Ministries Department, including annual training events, for Children's Ministries.
2. Children's Ministries leaders are encouraged to make contact with the Children's Ministries representative on the Discipleship Ministries Council and to explore ideas and resources available for Children's Ministries beyond those offered by the Discipleship Ministries Department.

G. Each local church is strongly encouraged to participate in the annual Discipleship Ministries emphasis offering.

H. The Discipleship Ministries department shall offer conference wide and district training events each year for the purpose of providing relevant and practical resources for equipping local Discipleship Ministries departments.

I. The Department will endeavor to provide resources and training for Hispanic and other ethnic groups in their native language where possible. Assistance will be offered to help these communities develop strong programs in their churches.

J. The Department will continue to sponsor the college scholarship program, making scholarships available to qualified applicants who apply and meet the requirements laid down in the Discipleship Ministries scholarship constitution. Local churches are encouraged to establish scholarships for students from their churches who attend one of these schools.

K. The Department will continue to promote IPHC and affiliate institutions of higher learning and encourage our young people and ministerial students to attend these schools.

L. The Department in conjunction with the Conference Council will work toward developing a program that would offer ministers, church workers, and laity of the North Carolina Conference college level theological education through extension courses and the Conference School of Ministries.

M. The Department will serve as a catalyst to promote the highest standard of Christian living with respect to morals and values in the home, church, community, nation, and world. The Department will promote programs that encourage Christians to maintain the highest standards of holiness in words, thoughts, deeds, relationships, and outward appearance in order to reinforce our witness to the world of the love of Christ. "You are the light of the world... Let your light shine before men, that they may see your good deeds and praise your father in heaven." (Matthew 5:14, 16).

2010 EVANGELISM AND WORLD MISSIONS COMMITTEE REPORT

I. INTRODUCTION AND STATEMENT OF PURPOSE

In Acts 1:8, Jesus Himself left His church the responsibility for world evangelization, "Ye shall receive power after that the Holy Ghost is come upon you; and ye shall be witnesses unto me both in Jerusalem, and in all Judea, and in Samaria, and unto the uttermost part of the earth". The mandate that the Lord gives us in this passage requires that we as His church develop strategies to reach the unsaved locally, regionally, cross-culturally, and internationally. Every local church and every believer are to take to heart the injunction of Our Lord to reach out to the lost on these four fronts. The two avenues whereby each church and each believer may fulfill task of world evangelization are local evangelism and world missions. Jesus said unto His disciples, "The harvest truly is plenteous, but the laborers are few; pray you therefore the Lord of the harvest, that He will send forth laborers into His Harvest." (Matthew 9:37,38). In obedience to the commands of our Lord, each Church must develop local ministries to reach those dying without Christ and each Church must pray for and fund the workers God calls into the fields of harvest. As the hour is critical each member of each constituent church of the North Carolina Conference must take seriously and personally this Divine mandate. We, as your Committee on Evangelism and World Missions, submit these recommendations as a method to unite in spreading the glorious Gospel both near and far.

II. OFFICE OF THE DIRECTOR

A. There shall be a Director of Evangelism and World Missions (referred to henceforth in this report as "the Director") elected by the Quadrennial Conference.

B. The Director shall serve as head of both the Evangelism Board and the World Missions Committee, coordinating the activities and ministries of both departments.

C. The Director shall serve full-time. The Conference Executive Council shall determine his/her salary and benefits.

D. The Director's job description shall include such functions as coordinating summer internship programs; recruiting and training evangelism pastors and church planters; monitoring and evaluating churches on the Evangelism Program; investigating and recommending locations for new churches; planning funding for evangelism projects; training effective resource individuals throughout the Conference and establishing growth goals.

E. The Director shall be encouraged to avail himself/herself of opportunities to learn and develop, attending all such workshops and seminars as are consistent with the responsibilities of his/her office.

F. He/she shall place a high priority on staying abreast of current trends in World Evangelization, keeping the Conference in the vanguard of the work of God. In order to insure the integration of our endeavors into the General Church's goals, the Director should avail himself/herself of training opportunities in soul winning, church growth, and church planting.

G. The Director shall maintain a variety of resources relating to personal evangelism, church growth, revitalization, spiritual growth, and shall make these available to the churches.

III. ORGANIZATIONAL STRUCTURE

A. Conference

1. The Conference Executive Council, in consultation with the Director, shall appoint an Evangelism Board which shall consist of the Conference Superintendent as chairman, the Conference Director of Evangelism and World Missions, and the District Directors.
2. The Conference Executive Council, in consultation with the Director, shall appoint an individual to serve as Director of Evangelism and World Missions for each district.

   8) One layman at large
   9) One Ethnic pastor

b. Conference Department heads will be invited to the meetings as Advisory members.

c. This committee shall meet as often as necessary to develop, promote, and correlate the Conference and General World Missions program, but no less than twice annually.

4. The Evangelism Board, in consultation with the Director, shall appoint various ethnic coordinators as necessary. These individuals shall be amenable directly to the Director, and their job descriptions shall be written by the Director and adopted by the Evangelism Board.

B. District
1. The Evangelism Board, in consultation with the Director, shall develop and revise the job description for District Unit Personnel.
2. The Evangelism Board in consultation with the Director shall appoint District units.
   a. Composition of each Unit shall be:
      1) The District Director (A Pastor)
      2) A Unit Secretary, who shall be a minister
      3) A Pastor
      4) A layman
      5) That the Ethnic diversity of our Conference be represented on the District Units where possible.
   b. Each District Unit shall plan, coordinate, promote, and execute the agendas of both the Evangelism and World Missions Departments.
   c. The Evangelism Board, with recommendation from the Evangelism Director, shall fill any vacancy occurring on a District Unit during the Quadrennium.

C. Local Church
1. Each local church board shall work with the pastor to ensure that opportunities for evangelism and spiritual growth are provided throughout the year, to include (but not limited to) revivals, seminars, and workshops, and to ensure that evangelists and speakers at such opportunities are adequately compensated.
2. Each local church shall have a Missions Director, who is to be appointed by the pastor and church board,.
3. Each local church should also have a local World Missions Board to assist the local Director and pastor in promotion of World Missions.

IV. SPECIFIC PROGRAM RELATING TO EVANGELISM

A. Conference
1. The main thrust of this Department shall be the encouraging, teaching, and implementing effective soul winning strategies for the clergy and churches of the North Carolina Conference, enabling them to reach out to their communities for the purpose of reaching the lost. This shall be accomplished focusing on three priorities.
   a. PERSONAL SOUL WINNING. In view of the fact that much effective soul winning is based on an existing relationship between the "evangelist" and the evangelized, the Director shall continue to promote aggressive and effective soul winning programs throughout the Conference. Such programs include Friendship Evangelism, The Contagious Christian, Evangelism Explosion and Reach 3.Plant3.

b. REVITALIZING EXISTING CHURCHES. In order for existing churches to be effective in soul winning, they must be spiritually and organizationally healthy. The Director will work with the pastor in leading churches that have plateaued or are in decline, in remedial church growth strategies. The Director will attempt to customize such strategies for any local church and pastor committed to their particular church's revitalization.

c. PLANTING NEW CHURCHES. As research has shown that the most effective evangelism often occurs as a newly organized church experiences a surge of growth, the Director shall continue a strong emphasis on organizing new churches as a means of reaching the unsaved. He/she will also continue to promote the Reach 3/Plant 3 program throughout the Conference with a goal to become a church planting movement.

2. Recognizing the importance for on-the-field training of our ministerial students, the Director should work with students, pastors, churches, and with our colleges and other schools approved by the Evangelism Board in arranging summer internships.
   a. When such an internship is confirmed, the Evangelism Department shall pay a supplement to the participating church.
   b. The Director and Evangelism Board shall set the amount of such supplements, but it should be no less than $400.00.
   c. To be eligible the church must provide at least an eight-week internship.
   d. The Director should have available for consultation with the churches a list of students seeking such internship.
3. The Director and his board shall plan district and area training sessions on vital evangelism themes, with promotion of the programs continuing in the District Fellowship Conferences.
4. The Director and Evangelism Board shall promote the Mission M-25 Ministry of our General Church with its four-fold outreach, Jail-Prison, Rehabilitation-Recovery, Homeless-Hungry and Biker-Motorcycle Club.
5. Current mileage reimbursement allowed by the IRS shall be paid to the Board Members when traveling on Director – approved Evangelism Department business.
6. The Director, in consultation with the Evangelism Board, shall determine the criteria for admitting and continuing churches on the Conference Evangelism program for oversight and financial support.
7. The Evangelism Board shall determine the number of full-time evangelists supplemented by the Department. In order to receive this supplement he/she must be a full-time evangelist who meets the criteria set by the Evangelism Board and approved by the Conference Executive Council. He/she must submit a written revival schedule each quarter in advance. The Conference Evangelism Board shall approve all requests for supplement.
   a. Those approved by the Board as Conference Evangelists shall receive supplements as approved by the Evangelism Board.
   b. The Evangelism Board shall determine the amounts of supplements and gifts.
   c. The Evangelism Board shall determine the continuing eligibility of Conference evangelists.
8. The Evangelism Department shall encourage retired ministers, bi-vocational ministers, holders of Local Church Minister's Licenses, and laymen to become involved in church planting projects in the conference, making themselves available to be trained and used in Department projects.

9. The Evangelism Board will determine the eligibility of a full-time pastor to receive supplemental income from the Department if he is also receiving secular income. The Board shall determine the supplemental status of the church that the minister pastors.
10. Each pastor and evangelist is strongly urged to consider enrolling in the Graduate School program offered by the Southwestern Christian University. The Evangelism Board may offer incentives, supplements, and scholarships toward the cost of this program as it deems feasible

B. District
1. The District Units shall meet at the call of the District Director, who shall determine the time, place and frequency of such meetings.
2. The District Units shall execute and promote the Evangelism Program as developed by the Director and the Evangelism Board.
3. The District Units shall assist the District Directors in disseminating information on the Evangelism emphasis being promoted by the Conference and urging cooperation and participation of District churches and pastors.
4. The District Units shall assist the District Directors in promoting fellowship among the District pastors and churches.
5. The District Units shall assist the District Directors in laboring to fulfill the growth goals projected for their districts.

C. Local Church
1. As the local church is the institution Jesus had in mind when He said, "I will build my church", we recognize the local church as the primary evangelizing agency of the Kingdom of God.
2. Every pastor should accept the challenge of the Reach 3/Plant 3 program by promoting within the congregation an effective method of personal soul-winning. Each church should be actively involved in training people for evangelism.
3. The leadership of each local church should accept the regional and cross-cultural challenge of the Reach 3/Plant 3 program by seeking appropriate locations and opportunities for church planting among both the Anglo and non-Anglo ethnic population. These opportunities should be brought to the attention of the District Director or the Conference Evangelism department.
4. Each pastor and board shall promote the M-25 Ministry of the General Church with its four-fold outreach. Pastors are encouraged to appoint a local church point man/woman who will lead this ministry under the director of the Pastor.

V. SPECIFIC PROGRAM RELATING TO WORLD MISSIONS.

A. Conference
1. The Conference missions committee will meet as often as necessary to develop, promote, and correlate the Conference and General World Missions Program, but no less than twice annually.
2. The job description of the Conference Director of Evangelism and World Missions include those responsibilities recorded in the General World Missions Director's Manual as well as those developed by the Conference Missions Committee and approved by the Conference Executive Council.
3. The Director and Conference Missions Committee shall set annual goals and promote these goals to the churches using various methods such as correspondence, training seminars, Missions F.E.S.T., rallies, conventions, the Evangel, Mission meals, etc.
4. The Director shall keep an accurate record of the expenses involved in facilitating the Conference World Missions Program and shall turn in these approved expenses to the General World Missions Department for reimbursement.
5. The Conference shall continue to provide residences rent-free, as long as economically feasible to Pentecostal Holiness missionaries, to include the Johnny Brooks Home and the Mollie Culbreth Evans Missions Home, located in Falcon and the Jackie Wilson Missions Home in Clinton. The Director shall supervise these residences, raise funds for renovation as necessary, and be responsible for overall operation of these homes. Missionaries who use these facilities will reimburse the Conference for their utilities. The Director shall investigate the possibilities of establishing other missionary apartment and/or homes within the Conference.

6. The Director will be provided space in the Evangel for the purpose of promotion and sharing missions' information and material.
7. The Director shall continue to expand the Conference World Missions mailing list network to include all pastors, local Directors, and other persons in the North Carolina Conference interested in world missions. The purpose of this network is to report missions' news, missionary needs, etc., and to serve as a prayer network.
8. The Director shall inform the local churches of promotional materials that are available from the General World Missions Department, and shall keep a good supply of these materials on hand at the Conference Ministry Center.
9. The Conference Missions Committee shall continue the system of recognition and reward for those churches and pastors who excel in world missions promotion and/or fund raising.
10. The Director shall designate "non-designated conference missions' monies" for N.C. Conference missionaries and special projects of critical need.
11. The Conference Missions Committee shall continue to sponsor at least one day of training for pastors and local Directors annually (Missions F.E.S.T.) and also sponsor district training events as feasible.
12. The Director will meet with individual District Directors as necessary and will plan one District Director's Workshop annually for the purpose of training and informing them of the World Missions Programs.
13. The Director should attempt to coordinate with "Men of Action" of the Men's Ministries and the General World Missions Department in order to initiate work projects on various mission fields.

B. District
   1. The job description of the District Directors shall include those duties recorded in the General World Missions Director's Manual as well as those developed by the Conference Missions Committee.
   2. The overall purpose of the District Director with regard to World Missions is to be the extension of the Conference Director of World Missions into the District.

C. Local Church
   1. The local Missions Director and Local Missions Board shall assist the pastor in promoting missions in the church, endeavoring to coordinate the missions program into the total program of the local church
      a. Each local church Missions Board shall set and promote to the church annual goals for World Missions.
      b. Each Missions Board shall devise a strategy for their church's participation in the annual "Global Outreach Offering", using materials and resources available from the Conference Director.
      c. The local Missions Director and as many members as possible of the Local Missions Board shall attend all District and Conference World Missions events.
      d. The Local Missions Director shall keep a supply of mission's promotional materials for distribution to members.
      e. The Local Missions Director shall endeavor to get the "MISSION'S UPDATE" into each member's home.
      f. The Local Missions Director and members of the local Missions Board shall be informed of the local church's missionaries (their needs, work assignments, etc.) and report to the church regularly.
      g. They shall see that the W.I.N. Director, each family and each prayer warrior in the church has a copy of the Prayer Link.

2. Each local church shall set a Sunday each month as "World Missions Sunday". World Missions "Faith Commitment" contributions and World Missions offerings are to be received on this Sunday.
3. Each local church is encouraged to adopt a local "World Missions budget", utilizing faith commitments to missions and missionaries. Once a church commits to support a missionary, notice shall be sent to the Conference Missions Director and to the missionary.
4. Each local church shall strive to observe a special Annual Missions Emphasis (F.E.S.T., convention, rally, international meal, etc.) and if at all possible, missionaries should be given missionaries' salary and support during the local emphasis. It is a goal of the department that each church in the Conference have at least one missionary they support and pray for regularly.
5. Recognizing that children around the world are in crisis, every church in the North Carolina Conference should participate in the "People to People" program and consider adopting at least one child per church family.
6. Since our missionaries are dependent on the prayers and support of local churches to survive and remain on the field, every church in the Conference should have a missionary speaker once a quarter and allow these missionaries to take "Faith Commitments".
7. Each local pastor and church should accept the international challenge of the Reach 3/Plant 3 program by striving to support a church plant on the mission field. The N.C. Conference will emphasize churches "Mothering" daughter churches.

VI. CONCLUSION

With heartfelt gratitude we express appreciation to the pastors, churches, and church members for their support in the outreach of Evangelism and World Missions programs. With special thanks to the Lord we acknowledge the growth of Hispanic ministry. We also give thanks because during this past quadrennium, we have expanded to include several African-American congregations. The development of a multi-ethnic/cultural conference is now being fulfilled. We are humbly grateful for record-setting accomplishments with regard to missionary support and World Missions projects. We praise the Lord for His miraculous blessings, and we prayerfully request your continue participation and cooperation that the coming quadrennium will be the most effective ever. In the words of Psalm 118:23, "This is the Lord's doing; it is marvelous in our eyes. To God be the Glory, Great things He hath done."

2010 FINANCE COMMITTEE REPORT

"God's work done in God's way will never lack God's supply."
Hudson Taylor, Missionary to China (1832-1905)

"And God is able to make all grace abound toward you; that ye, always having all sufficiency in all things, may abound to every good work:"* 2 Corinthians 9:8

Recognizing that Biblical Stewardship requires accountability to God and man (Hebrews 13:17) and knowing that the eyes of the government and the world are on the Church, and being confident that the blessing of God is essential if we are to see the growth for which we are praying and working, and understanding that all the churches of the North Carolina Conference have entered into a covenant agreement to be unified part of the greater body of Christ, and in particular, members of the International Pentecostal Holiness Church, we call all our ministers, churches and members to a renewed commitment to Biblical Stewardship and responsibility. This commitment will place them and their ministries in a position of abundant blessing from God (Malachi 3:10-12)
In keeping with the requirements of the Manual of the International Pentecostal Holiness Church (IPHC) and the North Carolina Conference By-Laws, we your committee on Finance submit the following:

I. LOCAL CHURCH BOARDS AND OFFICIALS
- A. No person shall hold any position of teaching or leadership in any department of the local church unless he or she pays their ~~full~~ tithe into the Pentecostal Holiness Church. While everyone is encouraged to give offerings to building funds, missions, schools, and other approved conference and denominational needs, such offerings are not to be considered tithe.
- B. All reports and monies from either church secretaries or credentialed ministers shall be mailed in time to arrive at the North Carolina Conference Ministry Center by the tenth day of each month.
- C. Each local church Administrative Council or Council-appointed committee, with pastoral advice, shall prepare an annual calendar year budget. Church membership shall be allowed access to the budget planning and development process. This budget shall be adopted by the pastor and church Administrative Council for presentation to the church body.
- D. All churches shall report monthly, and annually to the Conference all monies received.
- E. Churches shall not divert income that is derived from tithes and other non-designated sources into special accounts or funds to avoid payment of Tithe.
- F. All Churches should pay their tithe (10%) before undertaking any other commitments.
- G. Churches are encouraged to practice good stewardship in the area of church indebtedness and debt retirement.

II. MINISTER'S SALARIES AND BENEFITS
- A. SENIOR (or LEAD) PASTORS: Churches should provide the senior or lead pastor a generous salary plus housing, utilities, and benefits according to the following guidelines set forth as a minimum where feasible.
  1. TRAVEL: Churches are encouraged to use an accountable reimbursement plan for travel and other professional expenses. Travel is to be reimbursed at the IRS-approved rate.
  2. INSURANCE: Churches should pay the pastor's family health care insurance premium or establish and fund a flexible spending account (Cafeteria Plan) for medical expenses. The church should also consider disability insurance and term life insurance during the pastor's tenure at the church.
  3. SELF-EMPLOYMENT TAX: The church should pay the pastor's total self-employment tax due on compensation from the church.
  4. RETIREMENT: In harmony with the recommendation of the IPHC Manual for fringe benefits, we recommend that each local church pay the pastor's retirement in the amount of at least (7%) to the General Retirement Annuity program and the amount designated by the conference to the North Carolina Conference Retirement Program.

5. HOUSING: Each church should provide a parsonage or housing allowance and utilities to include, but not limited to, heat, electricity, water, phone basic rate, and garbage service. Where a parsonage is provided the church is encouraged to contribute to a housing equity escrow account for their pastor.
6. SPECIAL DAYS: The Church Board should consider at least a week's salary for the pastor as a Christmas gift and for Pastor Appreciation Day. They should consider an appropriate gift for Birthday and Anniversary. The Pastor's Family should be given consideration as well.
7. PROPERTY INSURANCE: The church should include coverage for the contents of the parsonage and the minister's furnishings in their total insurance package. Consideration should also be given for full coverage of the pastor's belongings in the church office.
8. CONTINUING EDUCATION: The church is encouraged to pay the cost of continuing education for the pastor relative to meeting requirements to maintain ministerial credentials as adopted by the General Conference.
9. REVIVALS: Full-time pastors shall be permitted to conduct three one-week revivals or their equivalent each year.
10. VACATION: Ministers should receive vacation with pay according to the following schedule that is based upon total years in full-time ministry.

    1-5 years: 2 weeks
    6-14 years: 3 weeks
    15 years, up: 4 weeks

    If at the time of a pastoral change a Pastor has not had all his due vacation he should be compensated for all unused vacation time accrued during the current year.
11. OUTSIDE WORK: In the event a church is unable to compensate the Pastor according to these guidelines, the pastor shall be permitted to work outside the church in order to properly provide for his/her family.
12. SALARY REVIEW: Pastor's salaries shall be reviewed annually as adopted by the General Conference and a copy of the salary review should be mailed to the North Carolina Conference Ministry Center. Churches are encouraged to establish a cost of living adjustment (COLA) at least equal to the annual Social Security COLA as a minimum salary adjustment consideration.

B. ASSOCIATE PASTORS AND OTHER FULL-TIME MINISTERIAL STAFF:
Each local church shall provide the full-time Associate Pastors and ministers and staff adequate salary. Fair consideration should also be given for all benefit items listed above for the Senior (or Lead) Pastor.

C. FULL-TIME EVANGELISTS
To insure that our evangelists are properly compensated, we recommend:

1. Churches employing full-time evangelists (those deriving their major support from revivals) should pay them no less than the salary of their pastor per week plus travel. In addition, churches are encouraged to receive free will offerings for the evangelist.
2. Revivals embracing two weekends shall be considered two full weeks in terms of compensation.
3. In the event a church cancels a revival with a full-time evangelist without giving the evangelist at least a 30-day notice, the church should pay the evangelist if he/she is unable to fill that time slot in his/her schedule.

III. CONFERENCE

A. The following budget allocations shall be made for this quadrennium:

1. Conference Discipleship Ministries - 8%
2. Conference Evangelism - 16%
3. Conference Retirement - 24%

4. Conference Sabbatical and Ministerial Care Program – ½% (.5%): the Conference Executive Council shall maintain an appropriate fund balance for use in a Sabbatical and Ministerial Care program. Surplus funds may be used for other purposes as the Conference Executive Council directs.
5. Conference Administration and Capital Improvements – 51.5%

B. The Conference Executive Council shall make appropriate monetary gifts to IPHC and IPHC-Affiliate colleges annually during this quadrennium.

C. Conference Personnel Salaries.
1. Salaries of all Conference personnel shall be reviewed annually and adjusted as deemed appropriate by the Conference Executive Council.
2. In addition and separate from the salaries of Conference Officials, the Conference Executive Council shall pay appropriate benefits as defined in this report.
3. Ministers on full-time assignment at the Conference Ministry Center will receive vacation and revival benefits according to the guidelines governing his/her department.

D. A ministerial tuition scholarship of $500.00 shall be awarded to ministerial students holding credentials with the North Carolina Conference of the IPHC, who are attending an IPHC or IPHC - affiliate college in preparation for full-time ministry. This scholarship shall be awarded during their Junior and/or Senior years. Students must apply for this scholarship on a form provided by the Conference Ministry Center.

F. IPHC Women's Ministries
1. The Women's Ministries shall be the bearer of the Conference gifts to our IPHC and IPHC-affiliate schools and shall present them at the "Feasts of Ingathering" or other designated school event.
2. Due to the growth of the Women's Ministries department and the demands this position places on the conference Women's Ministries director, the Conference Executive Council should continue to move toward a full-time salaried Women's Ministries director and include this salary in the Conference budget as soon as the funds are available.

G. Falcon Children's Home
1. That each pastor, in cooperation with the Women's Ministries, orient his/her local church Administrative Council and congregation with various ways of supporting this ministry.
2. Giving to and attending Harvest Train (Tuesday before Thanksgiving each year).
3. Memorial and honorary gifts
4. General Clothing Fund
5. Special Christmas emphasis with visits, cottage or campus parties, and assistance of the home in providing presents to the children.
6. The home's on-going needed supplies throughout the year by the home can be met through individuals, local churches, retail, wholesale and other organizations.

God has given called and anointed ministers to the Church "for the perfecting of the saints for the work of ministry, for the edifying of the body of Christ." (Ephesians 4:12) We commend the churches of the North Carolina Conference for the high esteem in which they hold these God-called men and women and for the resources they devote to enable them to fulfill the work to which God has called them.

2010 BYLAWS COMMITTEE REPORT

NORTH CAROLINA CONFERENCE BYAWS

MINISTER`S RECORDS

1. All clergy shall keep a record of their work, number of sermons preached, and personal finances on forms provided by the conference.
2. Names of all deceased ministers shall be listed in the Conference Minutes.
3. A complete roster of local churches with complete addresses, including rural routes, highway numbers, zip codes, and telephone numbers shall be included in the Minutes and listed on the conference website. These churches are to be listed by districts.
4. Reports by both Church Secretary and Ministers shall be mailed in time to arrive at the Conference office by the tenth of each month. All churches shall report monthly and annually to the Conference. Annual reports are due in the Conference Office by January 10.
5. Churches and church Secretaries/Treasurers with Internet access should make every effort to use the new IPHC web-based reporting system.

PASTORAL CHANGES

1. Each church voting for pastor shall use official ballots which are approved by the General Conference.
2. All voting for pastor must be conducted within the guidelines as set forth in the Manual of the International Pentecostal Holiness church. No exceptions will be allowed.
3. All churches and ministers shall work directly through the Conference Bishop when a pastoral change is desired.
4. If a pastor desires to move from his church, his request shall be in writing to the Conference Bishop. A second letter, which will be filed with the church in the event the Pastor moves, shall be sent to the Conference Bishop indicating the Pastor's desire to be moved, but not including personal information such as motives, personalities involved, etc.

MINISTERIAL CANDIDATES-LICENSING AND ORDINATION

1. Application for admission into the Conference shall be made to the Conference Bishop.
2. Each candidate for the ministry shall be a member of a local International Pentecostal Holiness Church at the time of his/her application for credentials.
3. All candidates shall satisfy the committee on Examination and /or Conference Executive Council that they have met the requirements of the General Conference Manual for license and ordination.
4. The Committee on Examination or the Conference Executive Council shall not consider the application of any person for membership into the Conference for license who does not have the sponsorship of at least one Pentecostal Holiness minister who will vouch for his or her character. A criminal background check shall be made on each candidate by the Conference.
5. The Committee on Examination shall examine all candidates carefully regarding doctrine and reputation. Each candidate shall provide a credit report no more than six months old. The personal credit report shall not be distributed to the Committee but shall be reported on to the Committee by the Chairman, the Conference Superintendent.
6. All candidates for license and ordination shall have completed the courses of studies approved by the General Conference or equivalent offered by any college approved by the Conference Executive Council.
7. The Committee on Examination, comprised of eight clergy members, shall continue to function in examining ministerial candidates. Two members shall be elected at each annual session to serve for four years on a rotating basis. The Hispanic Leadership Board shall examine Spanish speaking candidates and make proper recommendations to the Conference or Conference Executive Council.

DEEDS

No property shall be accepted in the Conference with a revertible clause in the deed. All deeds to church property shall be drawn in harmony with the specific guidelines as set forth in the International Pentecostal Holiness Church Manual.

LOCAL CHURCH BOARDS

1. Eligibility for selection and tenure of service on the Church Leadership Team (Elders, Deacons, Board Members) will be determined by the local church in harmony with the guidelines set forth in the International Pentecostal Holiness Church Manual.
2. The local church shall refrain from electing to the Official Board more than one member of an immediate family (husband-wife, parent-child, brother-sister, brother-brother, sister-sister) in its congregation, except in cases where it is unavoidable.
3. The local church shall not elect more than one member of an immediate family to church or departmental treasurers' offices.
4. Each member of the local church who serves in any official capacity shall be required to furnish evidence that he or she pays tithes into the church where he or she may serve.

RESOLUTIONS

All resolutions offered from the floor of the Conference shall bear the signatures equal to the number of persons on the Resolutions committee. The resolution shall be submitted in writing.

FINANCES-MINISTER AND CHURCH

1. In pastoral changes, the local church shall be responsible for the moving of the incoming pastor.
2. Each local church shall support the IPHC and N.C. Conference budgets by submitting a tithe (10%) of its income from regular tithes and offerings (all undesignated income) to the Conference Ministry Center on a monthly basis. The Conference Treasurer will forward to the IPHC Global Ministry Center the portion of all receipts mandated by the General Conference. In the case of a local church's failure to comply with this covenant agreement, the Conference Bishop may ask for an explanation for the delay. Churches who keep this financial covenant with the IPHC and N.C. Conference are encouraged to earmark special offerings. All funds raised for World Missions Ministries, Evangelism, Falcon Children's Home, Education and other designated ministries are to be sent to the Conference Ministry Center on a monthly basis and forwarded accordingly.
3. All members of the Conference shall pay one hundred percent (100%) of their tithes into the Conference. Members who fail to comply with this regulation will be subject to the disciplines provided by the International Pentecostal Holiness Church Manual. The Conference Bishop may notify such members as to their delinquency by letter quarterly. All tithes are to be paid on or before the tenth of each month.
4. In addition to the tithe, all active members (those not retired shall pay the current rate of their income as set by the Conference Executive Council yearly for Conference Retirement. Failure to do this forfeits one from drawing retirement benefits for the year (s) not paid.
5. Recommendations for salaries, benefits, etc. for Conference Officials, Pastors, Associate Pastors, etc. are to be found in the current Conference Finance Report.
6. The Conference Bishop shall confer with the church boards in the matter of Pastoral support where the need is apparent.
7. The rate for official travel shall be the current rate set by the Internal Revenue Service.
8. The Conference Treasurer shall be authorized to pay the moving expenses for one move of a retired minister up to the limit set by the Conference Executive Council.
9. All salaries and benefits including mileage received by the Conference personnel shall be included in the Conference Treasurer's Report.

VACATIONS

The Conference Bishop shall be given vacation on the same basis as pastors. He shall be permitted to conduct three revival campaigns outside the Conference boundaries at his discretion and any compensation for such services shall not apply on his salary.

Full-time pastors shall be permitted to conduct three one-week revivals or their equivalent each year. Ministers on full-time assignment will receive vacation and revival benefits according to the guidelines governing his/her department but not less than applies to pastors.

LOCAL CHURCH - MINISTERIAL RELATIONS

1. All evangelistic campaigns, prayer meetings, or religious exercises conducted by members within a radius of one mile of a local church shall be under the supervision of the local pastor. Any effort to start a new church must be under the supervision of the Conference Bishop and the Evangelism Director.
2. Ministers shall conduct themselves in keeping with appropriate ministerial ethics when making visits to former pastorates and shall not engage in any activity or conversation that would cause confusion and create a lack of cooperation of the church with the current pastor.
3. No pastor or member of a local church shall engage in any effort to solicit absentee votes or to campaign for or against the incumbent pastor. Retired ministers and local evangelists shall refrain from any activity which will have the effect of retarding the growth and progress of the local church which may result in interference with the program of the present pastor.
4. Each minister, when moving from a church, shall leave a complete file of members with addresses and occupations for the incoming pastor. He/she shall also leave a complete file of minutes of all Church Board meetings.

USE OF CONFERENCE FACILITIES

Anyone approved to use the North Carolina Conference facilities at Falcon shall follow the guidelines as established by the Conference Executive Council and shall be responsible for any and all breakage and damage to these properties.

DEATH OF A MINISTER

In the event of the death of a North Carolina Conference minister, the office of the Conference Bishop shall notify the Conference ministers by e-mail and phone tree. The Conference Executive Council Members will be notified first.

CONFERENCE PLANNING

1. The Conference Executive Council will serve as the Nominating Committee and shall determine the name and number of committees needed for all Conference sessions.
2. The Conference Executive Council will set the dates for all Conference training events (not department) and Falcon Camp Meeting.

North Carolina Conference
International Pentecostal Holiness Church
Ninety Ninth Annual Conference
August 6, 2010

For many in our world the effort of life is focused on success. For the servant of God, however, the focus is on significance. Success is a measurement of performance or achievement made by peers and is assessed in time. Significance on the other hand is a measurement of essence and value made by God and is assessed in eternity.

Today we recognize five men and their spouses who committed their lives long ago to a focus on significance. Each of them have served with distinction and honor. As their peers, we want to commend them for the success of their years in service. But we also realize the significance of their efforts is still being determined in the lives of those they have touched with the Gospel of Jesus Christ.

One day they will most assuredly hear, "well done good and faithful servant," from the One who loved them and gave Himself for them. But today on August 6, 2010 we, the delegation of the North Carolina Conference, rise to celebrate the life and ministry of these heroes of the faith.

Will you please stand, as Rev. Rudolf and Phyllis Britt, Rev. Charles and Nellie Lou Faulk, Rev. James and Faye Leggett, Rev. Raymond and Jean Whitehurst and Rev. Bobby and Ann Williams enter to take their seats of honor.

PLEASE STAND.....

TODAY WE RECOGNIZE AND EXPRESS APPRECIATION TO:

Reverend Rudolph Lee Britt

Brother Rudolph was saved in the Jones Grove Pentecostal Holiness Church in the summer of 1965 under the ministry of Rev. W.P. Brill. Feeling the call of God on his life to preach, he accepted that call in January of 1966. He received his Missions Workers License in March of 1966.

Rudolph married Phyllis Ellen Thompson on Sunday, August 6, 1967. Both were members of Manley Grove Church in Wayne County. One week later, on Saturday, August 13, during the annual conference he was awarded his License as a minister of the Gospel with the North Carolina Conference of the International Pentecostal Holiness Church. Within the week following Brother Rudolph received a call from Conference Superintendent, Rev. J. Doner Lee, for assignment as pastor of the LaGrange Pentecostal Holiness Church. Rudolph decided that with the help of the Lord he would accept and do his best. Thus, this newly married couple that loved God with all their hearts began a journey of serving congregations as pastor. In 1970 he received his Ordination.

God blessed this couple with three wonderful sons, Edward Lee, Philip Brian, and Benjamin Jason. The journey has lasted almost 43 years and has included the blessing of many wonderful people along the way.

His pastorates included LaGrange, Fremont, Garland, Albritton, Smithfield, Bailey, Calvary (later changed to Heritage Church), and for the last seven years he served the Roanoke Rapids Pentecostal Holiness Church.

In his own words, "it has been a good life serving in the role of pastor. God has graciously blessed us in so many ways. As we enter a new phase of the journey, we wonder what our Lord has in store for us as we continue to minister for Him. But we know this, what God has started, He will bring to completion."

Thank you Brother Rudolph and Sister Jean for your 43 years of distinguished service to the International Pentecostal Holiness Church and the Kingdom of God.

Rev. Charles Nelson Faulk

Charles Nelson Faulk was born on August 22, 1939 in Duplin County. Prior to his graduation from North Duplin High School in 1956, he joined the Marine Corp where he completed the requirements for his GED. In the fall of 1959, September 18, he married Nellie Lou and together they raised five children, Kat, Sherry, Ernest, David and Tony.

Later in life in 1976 at the age of 37 Brother Charles accepted Jesus Christ as his Savior. Called to preach in the year 2000, he enrolled in a two year study course through Liberty University. When he applied for license as a minister with the North Carolina Conference, he continued his studies and completed additional courses through the IPHC Home Study Course for ministers.

On February 13, 2007 the North Carolina Conference Board approved Brother Charles for his Local Church Minister Certificate. Then on May 19, 2007 Rev. Charles Nelson Faulk was awarded by the North Carolina Conference of the International Pentecostal Holiness Church in its annual conference session his Minister's License.

As Brother Charles states, "I had a late taking off. I was in the Durham hospital and talked a lot with God. That is when I felt the call to preach. I was concerned about me being older, and I felt that God said not to worry and to save my children."

Due to health problems that resulted in the loss of his legs, Brother Charles never preached in a church. There is no list of assignments made by man or the church to recount, but Brother Charles has remained faithful to the assignment given to him by His loving Lord...SAVE YOUR CHILDREN and serve me in your generation.

Thank you Brother Faulk and Sister Nellie Lou for your brief but faithful service to the International Pentecostal Holiness Church and the Kingdom of God.

Bishop James Daniel Leggett

Rev. James Leggett is the son of James S. Leggett and Hazel Leggett of Williamston, North Carolina. He was converted in 1956 at Bethany Pentecostal Holiness Church during the pastorate of Rev. M.D. McPherson. After receiving the call to the ministry, a call confirmed and amplified while in prayer at the old hand pump that once stood in front of the old Bethany sanctuary, he entered Holmes Bible College where he graduated in 1961 as valedictorian of his class. He received a BA degree from the University of North Carolina at Pembroke in 1970. Because of his pursuit of excellence and the achievement of his ministry, Holmes Bible College later awarded him an honorary Doctorate of Divinity in 1988.

Bishop Leggett received his Mission Workers' License in 1956 at Greenville First Church, was granted license by the North Carolina Conference of the International Pentecostal Holiness Church in 1957 and was ordained in 1960. After pastorates in Swanquarter, Pinetown, and Pembroke, he was assigned to Culbreth Memorial Church here in Falcon.

During his pastorate at Falcon, James Leggett was elected to the North Carolina Conference Board where he served eight years as a board member and four years as assistant conference superintendent. In 1986 he was elected as the North Carolina Conference Superintendent. During his superintendency, he was elected to the position of Assistant General Superintendent and Director of Evangelism USA for the General Church. He was elected the Presiding Bishop in August 1997. He served as the leader of the International Pentecostal Holiness Church for twelve years.

James Leggett served as a writer of the adult quarterly for the Pentecostal Holiness Church Sunday School literature and was a member of the Evangelical Sunday School Curriculum Commission developing outlines for Sunday School literature for several pentecostal denominations over a seven year period. He was editor of the 1996 Evangelism Digest for the National Association of Evangelicals. He taught extension classes for Holmes Bible College and Emmanuel College. He has served as a member of the Emmanuel College Board, and secretary of the Holmes Bible College Board of Trustees.

While at Holmes, James met Faye Watts whom he married in 1961. They have four children: James, Jr., Joseph, Cindy, and John.

Bishop Leggett is currently serving as President of Holmes Bible College, the oldest Pentecostal institution in the world and his alma mater.

Over the years Bishop Leggett has epitomized what is best in human excellence and spiritual devotion. As a husband, father, writer, teacher, educator, pastor and leader, he has distinguished himself and glorified his Lord Jesus Christ.

Thank you Bishop Leggett and Sister Faye for your 53 years of distinguished service to the International Pentecostal Holiness Church and the Kingdom of God.

Rev. Raymond H. Whitehurst

Brother Raymond was born on September 28, 1943 in Edgecombe County. As a young boy of 9 years of age, he accepted Jesus Christ as his personal Savior at the Johnson Memorial Presbyterian Church.

Following his high school graduation and initial years in public employment, he met and married Shelly Jean Johnson on April 3, 1965. To their union was born on November 23, 1970 a beautiful baby girl, Angel, who filled their lives with joy and has given them two granddaughters.

In 1976 the Whitehurst family joined a Baptist church. During this period of his life, Brother Raymond explored his capacities for ministry serving as a Sunday School teacher and deacon in the local church. In addition, because of his commitment to the Word of God, Raymond became a Gideon with Gideon's International and averaged speaking in local churches fifteen times a year over his eight years of service for them.

In 1981 he and his wife joined the Tarboro Pentecostal Holiness Church. While serving as a deacon, Raymond recognized a specific call to the ministry in 1984. His pastor and mentor, Rev. W. M. Wooten, went with him to Falcon to make his application for ministerial credentials. In his letter of recommendation Rev. Wooten stated, "Brother Whitehurst has demonstrated a wonderful Christian character and ministerial calling since he has been with us. His love for men and God comes through to everyone around him. I'm glad to recommend him for the ministry."

With that recommendation and having satisfied the academic and character requirements of the North Carolina Conference of the International Pentecostal Holiness Church for the ministry, Brother Raymond was licensed to preach in 1985. He was later ordained in 1987.

During his years of service, Brother Whitehurst pastored the following churches: Windsor (as a fill-in), Hobgood, Brock's Chapel, Jacksonville and Bethel. Wherever he served, you were sure to be told when he saw you, "Jesus loves you and I do too." Well Brother Raymond, let us say to you today that Jesus loves you and we all love you and Ms. Jean too.

Thank you Brother Raymond and Sister Jean for your 30 years of distinguished service to the International Pentecostal Holiness Church and the Kingdom of God.

Rev. Bobby Truman Williams

Brother Bobby was born on April 21, 1945 in Pitt County to Rev. Roy O. and Kathleen Hardee Williams. Accepting Jesus Christ as his personal Savior in 1961 at the age of 16, Bobby felt the call to preach during a Piney Grove Camp Meeting service on a Saturday night of that same year. As Bobby recounts, "the preacher was speaking on the subject of the New Jerusalem and I heard the voice of the Lord saying to me, 'Bobby, obey and preach the Gospel.'" His response to this all important call was a simple and straight forward "YES." The following year, 1962, Brother Bobby received his Missions Workers' License. This same year he was assigned the Washington Pentecostal Holiness Church.

Two great things happened to Brother Bobby in 1963. He was licensed to preach for the North Carolina Conference of the International Pentecostal Holiness Church and he married Gloria Anne Hill of Vanceboro, N.C. After their marriage, Bobby continued to pastor the Washington congregation for a year before the two of them left for Emmanuel College where Bobby earned an Associate of Arts degree. Upon completion of his studies, Bobby returned to North Carolina where he was ordained in 1966. He and Anne have two children: John and Tyanne.

Brother Bobby has been a lifelong learner and an example to others of the value of adding to one's educational experience. Rev. Williams has a Bachelor of Arts degree from East Carolina University where he graduated with honors. In addition, he is the recipient of an Advanced Science and Math Certificate from the University of North Carolina. Realizing that ministry extends beyond the doors of the church, Brother Bobby as an ordained minister of the Gospel served for 15 years as the Office Manager for Pitt County Memorial Hospital.

As a pastor, Brother Bobby and Sister Anne served the following congregations: Robersonville, Red Springs, Roper, New Bern, Shelmerdine and Kinston First. At the direction of the Conference Bishop and Council, he has served as a valuable interim pastor for the St. Paul, Tarboro First and Roper congregations.

Brother Bobby has contributed to the life and advancement of the North Carolina Conference and its ministries serving as Vice President of the Sunday School Board and as a member of the North Carolina Conference Council for the last 14 years. His influence and wisdom will continue to produce good results in the years ahead.

Thank you Brother Bobby and Sister Anne for your 47 years of distinguished service to the International Pentecostal Holiness Church and the Kingdom of God.

Conclusion:

Today's appreciation report will fall way short of representing the magnitude of sacrifice and the depth of commitment that has been demonstrated by the life and ministry of these five men and their spouses. But, we are certain that the One who really keeps the record will not overlook a single thought, word or deed that has been done in His Name. Ministers of the Gospel of Jesus Christ we celebrate the success of your years of service and we appreciate the significance of your contribution to the eternal kingdom of our God and Father.

In the words of the song, Find Us Faithful, written by Jon Mohr, "Oh may all who come behind us find us faithful, May the fire of our devotion light their way, May the footprints that we leave, Lead them to believe, And the lives we live inspire them to obey, Oh may all who come behind us find us faithful."

WILL YOU AGAIN STAND TO YOUR FEET AND LET THESE HEROES OF THE FAITH KNOW HOW MUCH YOU APPRECIATE THEM!

NORTH CAROLINA WOMEN'S MINISTRIES
MINUTES OF 2010 CONVENTION

The North Carolina Women's Ministries met for the Sixty-Sixth Annual Convention on Saturday, June 5, 2010 at the Culbreth Memorial Tabernacle in Falcon, North Carolina. The Convention theme was "Capture the Moment!"

Registration began at 8:00 a.m. in the Archives Room adjacent to the auditorium of the Tabernacle with Mrs. Marjorie Teachey as Registrar, assisted by the North Carolina Women's Ministries District Directors.

Local Women's Ministries groups and other Conference Ministries had "Show and Sell" displays also in the Archives room adjacent to the auditorium.

"This is the day the Lord has made; we will rejoice and be glad in it."

Capturing the Moment in Music, Praise and Worship....

Musical prelude began at 8:30 a.m. by Ray Faircloth, Jr. from The Life Center Pentecostal Holiness Church in St. Pauls, NC.

Bishop Jimmy Whitfield brought greetings of welcome from the North Carolina Conference. He then gave the invocation.

Melissa Locklear ushered us into the presence of the Lord as we sang together "Waiting on You," "To Worship You, I Live," and "I Minister to You."

Capturing the Moment in Ministry…

NCWM Director Patsy Deese addressed the Convention with greetings and welcome.

Director Deese then requested that NCWM Historian, Mrs. Dorothy Boyette, be ushered to the podium to receive a very special gift from NCWM. Mrs. Boyette has served as our official photographer and scrapbook professional for approximately nineteen (19) years. She was honored with a beautiful watch for all her hard work and dedication.

Director Deese then recognized and honored NCWM Assistant Director, Rev. Janice Marshburn, Secretary/Treasurer Marjorie Teachey, and Board Members Terry Boyette & Darnell Nelms; District Directors: Clinton District-Deanna Barney, Fayetteville-Rev. Patsy Payne, Goldsboro District-Mrs. Sandra Britt, Greenville District-Mrs. Yvonne Jones, Lumberton District-Peggy Gawinski, New Bern District-Rev. Rose Alligood, Raleigh District-Rev. Carol Davis, Rocky Mount District-Mrs. Betty Watson, Williamston District-Mrs. Judy Jones, Wilmington District-Mrs. Jackie Thompson and Wilson District-Mrs. Barbara Mynes. Happy Hearts Coordinator Rev. Blanche Pollard, Past Presidents/Director Dollie Davenport and North Carolina Girls' Ministries Team: Director Lydia Mills, Assistant Director Debbie Collins, Secretary/Treasurer Crystal Grant &Historian Wanda Oates, Gifts were presented from the NCWM to each of these leaders for all their hard work and dedication to NCWM.

NCWM Director Deese, with the help of Board Member Darnell Nelms, whose portfolio is Education, awarded Emmanuel College Scholarships to the following students: Michael K. Callicutt, Jeremy Davis, Spencer T. Hubbard, Jonathan Mills, Justin Morris, Hannah O. Ward and Jessica M. Wooten.

NCWM local directors were presented with awards earned for the past year.

Capturing the Moment in Special Recognition….

Director Deese then asked Bishop Jimmy Whitfield to join her on the platform at which time he honored NCWM Secretary/Treasurer Marjorie Teachey with a check from the North Carolina Conference in recognition for her eight years of service to NCWM Women's Ministries.

Marjorie spoke to the Convention and expressed her deep appreciation for all their support and prayers during her tenure. She also stated that because she feels that God is leading her to focus more on the church and her pastorate, she would not allow her name to be run for another term. She asked for the continued prayers as she follows God's leading.

Bishop Whitfield then requested that NCWM Director, Patsy Deese, come to the podium. He gave her an opportunity to address the convention. Director Deese expressed her deep love and appreciation to the women of this conference for all their love and support as well as to her husband, Henry, her family and her home church Maranatha. She shared with them that this has been a wonderful journey and God has blessed her with amazing friendships and memories that will always be cherished. However, it is time to turn the mantle of leadership to someone else. Bishop invited "Mr. Henry" to join them on the podium. At which time Director Deese was presented a gift from the North Carolina Conference for all of the years of outstanding service.

Assistant NCWM Director Janice Marshburn came to the podium and recognized Director Deese's daughter, Andrea; her son-in-law, Alan and their two beautiful children, Carter and Maddie.

Janice presented a sterling silver locket to Director Deese, engraved with Patsy initials, from the North Carolina Women's Ministries. A video that captured in a capsule the last twenty (20) plus years beginning when she served on the G.A. Board through her leadership as NCWM Director was shared with the convention attendees.

Director Deese's grandchildren, Carter and Maddie, were amazed as Rev. Terry Whittenton, better known as "Whitle Do" the clown, came running down the aisle to surprise Director Deese. He entertained all of us with his jokes and remarks about "Mrs. Patsy"!

NCWM Girls' Ministries Team presented Director Deese with a gift of appreciation for the impact her leadership has made on them and helped their work go more smoothly.

Rev. Marty and Jane Warren and their daughter Olivia presented a beautiful bouquet of long-stemmed red roses to Mrs. Patsy.

Assistant Director, Janice Marshburn, then gave the ladies of the convention an opportunity to show their love and appreciation by bringing their gifts and placing them in decorative boxes on the altar.

This portion of the convention concluded with Melissa Locklear singing, "My Alabaster Box".

Capturing the Moment in Business Session….

Director Deese introduced Mrs. Tame' Lambert, our new Executive General Women's Ministries Director, as the presiding officer for this convention.

Director Lambert called the meeting to order and called for the Decorum Report to be read, NCWM Board Member Darnell Nelms, Chair of the Decorum Committee, read the report. It was adopted as read.

Director Lambert set the "voting bar" according to the report and asked all non-delegates to move outside of the bar and all eligible delegates to be inside the bar.

Director Lambert called for the number of delegates registered. Marjorie Teachey, Registrar for this convention reported that there were 164 registered delegates.

Rev. Janice Marshburn, Chair of the Resolutions Report, read the report at which time a change was made on page 3, article XVI to read, The NCWM encourage a relationship with women of all ethnic groups both on the local and Conference level. This report was adopted.

Director Lambert called for the election of officers to begin. The floor was opened for nominations for NCWM Director. Janice Marshburn and Carol Davis were nominated. Janice Marshburn was elected with 147 votes.

Mrs. Lambert then opened the floor for nominations for Assistant Director. Terry Boyette and Sandra Britt were nominated. Sandra asked that her name be withdrawn. Terry Boyette was elected by acclamation.

The Finance Committee Report was called and Marjorie Teachey, Chair of this committee, read the changes in the report. There was a motion to change the word, "respectfully" on page 1 in the first section, under A. to "respectively." Motion was accepted. There was also a motion made to change page 2, under Roman numeral nine, letter G to $125.00. There was a second and the motion was adopted.. On page 3, under the letter L, small letter c, the word 'attend' would be inserted so that it would read "Pay expenses for Girl's Ministries Leadership team to 'attend' Power Chicks 2011.

The floor was opened for nominations for NCWM Board Member. Darnell Nelms and Yvonne Jones were nominated. Yvonne Jones asked that her name be withdrawn because of family obligations. Darnell was elected by acclamation.

The floor was then opened for nominations for the second NCWM Board Member. Jane Warren, Rose Alligood , and Teresa Woodard were nominated. There were 145 votes cast. Teresa Woodard was elected with 74 votes.

"I thank my God upon every remembrance of you" Philippians 1:3

There are some people in the fellowship of faith who so impact our lives that we never forget then. They are such a blessing to us that we literally thank God for giving them to us as friends.

Each person we are honoring today is such a person. While we walked together in life, their presence was a blessing to us, and now that they are in Heaven, we continue to be blessed by the influence they left us. Indeed, "we thank God" that He loaned them to us for a season, to love us and be loved by us.

As I call the names of each deceased WM member, any family member present and anyone present from their local WM group, is requested to please stand and remain standing until each person being remembered is recognized.

2009 Deceased W. M. Members

Capturing the Moment in Installation of Newly Elected Officers…..

General Executive Director Tame' Lambert gave a devotion about Sarah, the mother of Isaac. She reminded us that though the promise was to Abraham, it was a woman that actually gave birth to the promise. As Sarah was the one to "give birth and nourish" Isaac, she asked that all the women of the North Carolina Conference would cooperate and work together with the newly elected board "give birth and nourish" those whom God has promised us!

Mrs. Lambert called for Bishop Whitfield and the newly elected NCWM board members to come forward.

Bishop Whitfield gave a charge of responsibility and encouragement to the new board, after which he prayed the dedicatory prayer over them with the assistance of Bishop; James Leggett, Rev. Danny Nelson, Rev Rose Boyd, and General Executive Director Tame' Lambert.

Newly elected North Carolina women's Ministries Director Janice Marshburn came forward and led us in the "Women's Ministries Song," and benediction.

Director Deese invited everyone to come to the front after the benediction and greet the new NCWM board.

Respectfully Submitted,
Marjorie Teachey, NCWM Secretary/Treasurer

NORTH CAROLINA WOMEN'S MINISTRIES
2009-2010 DIRECTOR'S REPORT

"This is the day the Lord has made; we will rejoice and be glad in it." (Psalm 118:24)

Our theme for this NCWM Convention is "Capture the Moment". As the Lord continues to bless the work of Women's Ministries across this great conference as well as around the world, I encourage each of you to continue to take advantage of every opportunity to be His hands, His eyes, and His mouth piece. He has called you to serve others and you do it well, but we still have a lot of work to do.

I continue to be excited about what the Lord is doing through Women's Ministries. I have been honored to serve as your Conference Women's Ministries Director. The last eight years have gone quickly and have been absolutely wonderful and I thank you for allowing me the privilege of worshipping and serving with you and beside you.

It was in August 1983 when I received a letter from Mrs. Faye Leggett, NC Conference W. A. Director, asking me to serve as the first GA District Director for the Jacksonville District (now Wilmington). I still remember how excited and honored that I was of being asked to serve in this capacity. Little did I know of the journey that lay ahead. In 1986 I was asked to serve on the GA Conference Board as Historian then later I was appointed as Secretary/Treasurer to serve on the GEMS Board where I served for eight years. In June 1994, I was elected to the NCWM Board as Secretary/Treasurer. What a thrill to serve with Linda Thomas, Sue Parker, Phyllis Harrell and Janice Marshburn. I served you in this area of ministry for eight years. In June 2002 you elected me to serve as your NC Conference WM Director along with Janice Marshburn, Marjorie Teachey, Terry Ann Boyette and Lois Trueblood. At our 2006 Convention, you re-elected me by acclamation to continue to serve as NCWM Director. At that time, Lois Trueblood resigned from the board and you elected Darnell Nelms to serve on the NCWM Board.

To NCWM BOARD MEMBERS: Janice, Marjorie, Darnell and Terry Ann, I say thank you! You have served this conference well. At the very beginning of this journey, we agreed that we were a team and a team we have been. We have spent a lot of time together, long board meetings, planning sessions, traveling across North Carolina as well as other states. We have laughed a lot, cried a lot and prayed a lot (and we shopped a lot). These women have used their gifts and talents to serve NCWM to the best of their abilities and I have been honored to serve alongside them. They are not only partners in ministry but also my friends and I will always cherish our time together.

NCWM DISTRICT DIRECTORS are a blessing from the Lord. They continue to help build His Kingdom by serving in this area of ministry. They serve as liaisons of communication between conference programs, activities and the local church. They serve as registrars and helpers at conference functions. They promote Women's Ministries on the local level by organizing rallies, leadership meetings and keeping in touch with local directors. A very special thanks, to ROSE ALLIGOOD, DEANNA BARNEY, SANDRA BRITT, CAROL DAVIS, PEGGY GAWINSKI, JUDY JONES, YVONNE JONES, BARBARA MYNES, PATSY PAYNE, JACKIE THOMPSON and BETTY WATSON.

Since our convention last year, I have traveled 8,313 miles across the North Carolina Conference. You have allowed me to be a part of your WM Day observances, Sharing Sister programs, and your local meetings. I have held workshops, and training sessions, planned and executed our Leadership Seminar, the NCWM Retreat, local Director's Council, District Director's training, and participated in district rallies. I have also participated in the Bishop's Advisory Council.

Thank you for continuing to help equip our young men and women for Christian life and ministry by supporting our church schools. Your contributions to Feast of Ingathering, including matching funds, were $64,185.69. Our goal was $75,000.00. These funds were designated to Emmanuel College, Southwestern College, Pacific Coast Bible College and Holmes Bible College.

You gave $14,640.47 toward Christmas Missions to bless our missionaries with Christmas gifts. Additionally, you supported other mission's projects in the amount of $5,745.87.

Falcon Children's Home was the recipient of approximately $97,451.12 in cash and $85,000.00 in commodities from the North Carolina Conference through the WM supported Harvest Train. You gave $2,938.00 to the Alternative to Abortion Ministry (ATAM).

Thank you for your continued support of the Zambia "Sewing Marching" Project. At the NCWM Retreat this year, we received an additional $2,441.86. The NCWM joined forces in 2008 with other Conference women's Ministries in the US to help provide 450 "foot pedaled" sewing machines by 2010 to the WM Conferences in Zambia. To date, North Carolina Conference Women's Ministries has sent $11,684.76 toward this project. To God Be the Glory!

Enthusiasm and zeal best describes our Girls' Ministries Team. this ministry continues to be a strong, vital arm of Women's Ministries. Under the leadership of LYDIA MILLS, and the leadership team. CRYSTAL GRANT, DEBRA COLLINS and WANDA OATES, these young women have allowed the Lord to use them to serve you. They continue to build the Kingdom by keeping their goal to reach every young girl in churches across the North Carolina Conference. We are blessed and appreciated each of them for all their hard work and dedication. They are a great team!

Under the leadership of BLANCHE POLLARD and assisted by MARJORIE TEACHEY, MARGARET POTTER and MYRTLE WINSTEAD, the HAPPY HEARTS are going as strong as ever. These women continue to do an excellent job of allowing the Lord to use them for service by continuing to plan and promote the Happy Hearts meetings and activities. They are a joy and a blessing to be around. Thank you for letting me join in your fun and fellowship.

THE PAST PRESIDENT'S CLUB chaired by DOLLIE DAVENPORT is a great support group. Dollie, along with CLARA WILLIAMS, JEAN WILLIAMS, SUE PARKER, FAYE LEGGETT, MARY BELLE JOHNSON and LINDA M. THOMAS for years has allowed the Lord to use them for ministry. Their combined years of wisdom have been a great asset to the North Carolina Conference. It's been a joy to follow in their footprints. I will always appreciate their love and support.

Our NCWM HISTORIAN, DOROTHY BOYETTE, has served as our official photographer and archives whiz for approximately nineteen years. God has given her creative talents and we appreciate her dedication and commitment to NCWM. She has been faithful in keeping the scrapbooks current and ready to display when needed. Thank you for your unselfish sacrifice of time and talent. We appreciate all your hard work.

Thank you to the Conference staff and the NC Conference Board for your continued love and support. You have served us with a servant's heart and we appreciate all your hard work and dedication.

NC Conference BISHOP JIMMY WHITFIELD helps us fulfill the Conference vision for the future of Women's Ministries with his encouragement and support. We appreciate his leadership and continued prayers.

To our faithful PRAYER TEAM, we are so thankful that you continue to pray for us. We have felt your prayers more than you know. Thank you for continuing to pray for the NCWM Board and the work of Women's Ministries at home and around the world. There is power in prayer!

To my home church, Maranatha and my Pastor, Matthew W. Smith and his wife Minda, thank you for supporting this ministry and me. You have been a blessing.

To each of you may I say thank you for all you do on the local level. You are the instrument that God is using to meet the needs in your home, church and community. Thank you for your continued support of the many facets of Women's Ministries and may you continue to be a blessing! I encourage you to capture every moment to bless others. We couldn't do all we do without you. You are the key to building His Kingdom.

Last but not least, I have shared with you many times that I could not have fulfilled my commitment to you without the help of my husband, "Mr. Henry". I can honestly say that there are not enough words to verbalize how much I appreciate him. The last eight year he has played a vital part in this ministry by enabling me to serve you. I thank the Lord for him and for his love and support. You are a blessing from the Lord.

Again let me say, it has been a joy and an honor to serve you. This has been a wonderful journey but now as my life is changing, it is time to give the mantle to a new leader. I will always appreciate your words of encouragement, your friendships and your support. May the Lord bless you as you serve Him. Please remember, Together we can make a difference!

In His Amazing Love,

Patsy C. Deese
North Carolina Women's Ministries Director
